AFRAID OF SENATOR BUTLER

Absence of Southerner from Impor tant Committee Meeting Alarms Followers of Bryan.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 .- The populist national executive committee held two sessions here oday, but contrary to expectations Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina, the chairman of the national committee, was not present and no one seemed to know whether he would come to Chicago for the meeting. Harry Tracy of Texas was the only other member of the committee who was not pres-

The committee discussed informally the withdrawal of Charles A. Towne, populist candidate for vice president, but the members did not fix upon a date for the calling together of the entire national committee. The executive committee has no power fill the vacancy. This must be done by the national committee and it is apparently expected that it will meet before long and select Adlai E. Stevenson as the populist candidate for vice president. There seems to be a good deal of apprehension among the members of the committee in regard to the attitude of Senator Butler on the vice presidential situation. There has been a strong rumor to the effect that the North Carolina populist would take the bit between his izens at Amoy, China, were reported to be teeth and insist that a populist be named for campaign, with a view of defeating the two vice president on the populist ticket. Casket Received at Church.

When the casket reached the Pantheon lifted it from the gun carriage and carried it into the church, where it was received by monsignor the count of Reggio, archbishop of Genoa, who was in his pontifical robes and surrounded by the cathedral functionaries. The casket was then raised to the top of a catafalque surmounted by : wreath of iron and on it was placed the helmet and sword of King Humbert. At that moment, so touching was the beautiful scene, that the emotion of those present was plainly audible within the stilled church. Tears dimmed many eyes and sobs could be heard throughout the hall.

An hour before the arrival of the funeral procession Queen Helena, the dowager queen, Margherita, former Queen Maria Pia of Portugal, as well as some of the royal princes, reached the Pantheon in carriages. The new king and the Italian princes, on their arrival, took up positions on the right side of the church, the queen and princesses stationing themselves on the left.

The royalties and their suites, the foreign ministers, the cabinet ministers, the members of Parliament, the officers of state, the diplomatic corps, the army and navy officials and a few invited guests were the only persons allowed inside the edifice.

There was the usual funeral liturgy, which was chanted, and then absolution was again bestowed. As the archbishop, assisted by bestowed. As the archbishop, assisted by all the clergy, blessed the corpse, he bowed and inclined as he prayed before the king and oueen.
